A field of over 100 junior boys and girls started play on Monday, August 8, 2011 in Vancouver, B.C., Canada, with a variety of weather, sunshine, clouds and rain and sun again. This did not deter the enthusiastic participants, and Vancouver's Philip MAK leads the way with a nifty 3 under par 58 at the Musqueam Golf Centre, which also features a very popular “putt putt” course. The Musqueam Band are great hosts!

Day 2 saw the field play the sporty Langley Golf Centre layout. James HUNTER of Vancouver had a great round of 51, 3 under par, helped by no less than four birdies! 8 year old Brian Dale of Mission almost “aced” the 9th Hole, leaving his ball hanging on the lip of the cup! Many thanks to the Allenby family and Langley GC!

Day 3's golf course was in Delta, the Sunshine Woods GC, with another great day of weather on the challenging and long Par 3 layout. Blueberries were in good supply and were they every tasty! More exciting and solid golf, with leaders in all age groups beginning to make their mark. Again, James Hunter of Vancouver was under Par, the only golfer to do so, returning a -1 53. Well done!

Day 4 at the Kings Links gave the golfers the feel of “old country golf” in Scotland – rolling links land and just enough breeze to add to the challenge of the sloping and smooth greens. Some outstanding scores were returned, with Victoria's Jeevan Sihota at 74, the day's lowest, just a shot ahead of 9 year old Claire Lovan of Surrey. Special yardage markers were used according to international standards, with all age groups playing their respective distances. (See www.cjga.com)

Story of the week though was the ever so steady play of the overall Grand Champion, AJ Ewart of Coquitlam, B.C. AJ got warmed up for the final round by recording twelve birdies over the first three days and added a lucky 13th birdie at the Kings Links eleventh hole to pull away from all pursuers. Not the longest off the tee but long on heart, AJ's even demeanor carried him through to a very satisfying victory.

All qualifiers are rewarded for their play, with a special 3-booklet package added, courtesy of the famous “Joey O” of the United States, know for his motivational skills.

Many thanks too, of course to Little Masters alumni, Chris Crisologo, Aaron Ferrer, Changmin Lee, Earvin Remandaban and Jude Sioson, and John Patrick and John Berryman for doing a great job with setting tee markers, registration, scoring and marshalling for the entire week. Cameron Wong, Ed Lex and Harry White, the men behind the scenes too! Optimists all for one in “Bringing Out the Best in Kids”!

Extra special entertainment was provided by the Golf Show's Brad Ewart, who entertained the crowd with his “trick shot” display, and our gracious hosts at the King's Links, Brad and Marie Newell, provided prizes and special gift bags for the top 40!
